

SAFETY, HEALTH AND ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

As a leading supplier of Electrical Equipments. N Energy Corporation is committed to manufacture products in safe and environment friendly manner.

Safety of the employee is the first thing while taking every decision at all levels.

Conforming at all applicable statutory / regulatory requirements pertaining to safety, health and environment.

It is the responsibility of every employee to make this policy effective.

Management shall provide all the possible resources. Employee's contribution in the EHS through safety committees, suggestion scheme and other EHS programs.

To maintain safe and healthy working conditions, provide and maintain plant, equipment and machinery and ensure safe storage / use of substances.

Training, re-training information, participation, consultation and communication are essential elements in meeting safety, health and environmental objectives and to make this policy effective as a whole.

N Energy Corporation uses its best endeavors to ensure that contractors working on its behalf do so whilst maintaining satisfactory health, safety and environmental standards.

N Energy Corporation believes and complies PDCA cycle for maintaining its EHS standard and performance.

Safety performance of individual, his department and organization as a whole will be considered for career advancement and appraisal.

Summary of the health, safety and environment performance will be given in the annual report.

Optimizing resource utilization for pollution prevention, energy & water conservation and reduce of waste & emissions.

Date : 1st January, 2022

Place : Ankleshwar

Approved By

(NARENDRASINH RAJPUT)
Proprietor